Manley leader opposition told me this morning he withholding comment until GOJ states position, but his tone expressed doubts about US position.

Small group from pro-communist "friends of Cuba committee" formed at noon today in front of Embassy with placards, handbills protesting US action. Were quickly dispersed by police.

Comment: Political leaders appear to be waiting for lead from UK, Commonwealth, or UN. They also trying to sense local reactions which as yet unformed except for anxiety at suddenly finding themselves hapless bystanders along front line.
